

Talk about this question.

What differences are there between how cats breathe and how fish breathe? Make up more questions about the text, and see if a friend can answer them.

Write the answers to these questions.

Why did the writer include a diagram? Tick the best answer.

- To fill a gap on the page.
- To show you how to spell words from the text.
- To make the page look good.
- To help you understand words from the text.

How is the text organised? Tick the best answer.

- In the order things happened
- In paragraphs
- In a table
- In verses

Why did the writer choose to organise the text this way?

The second and third columns of the table have headings. They are "My cat" and "My fish". The first column of the table does not have a heading. What heading could it have?

Why did the writer choose the title Fur and Fins?
